Pilots capturing images must be mindful of privacy laws. The Information Commissioners Office (ICO) recommends UAVS are operated responsibly with respect to the privacy of others. Think about what personal data will be collected of someone. How will this information be used on social media sites. Who will be able to reuse this data (photographers copy right their images) Will the data be secure. Good advice is let people know what you're doing. Be visible wear Hi Viz jacket. Consider your surroundings. Get to know your cameras capability. Plan your flight. Keep your aircraft in sight. Think before sharing your images. Avoid conflict situations. Demonstrate you are acting responsibly.
